

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

All entrants to the Competition agree to be bound by the following terms and conditions:

1) ENTRY CRITERIA

The Schools Prize is open to all children who are enrolled in secondary education in Mauritius, at the date of entry.

2) PRIZES

All submitted artworks are viewed online by a judging panel consisting of local art professionals, who shortlist 20 Finalists for exhibition.

Judges' Prize

The top 20 Finalists' works are exhibited and the judges attend for a second round of voting, in person, to select their winner.

Public Vote Prize

Throughout the course of the exhibition the public will be able to vote (live and online). The entry, having received the most votes from the public will be awarded the Public Prize. In the interests of fairness, in the event that the same entry is awarded both the Judges' Prize and the Public Vote Prize, the Judges' Prize will be awarded to that entry and the Public Vote Prize will be awarded to the entry which achieved the second largest number of votes.

3) AWARDS

	Student Wins	School Wins
Judges' Prize	Rs 8,000	Rs 15,000
Public Vote Prize	Rs 6,000	Rs 10,000

Winners of the Judges' and Public prizes will automatically be enrolled into The Sovereign Art Foundation Global Prize.
