4 ENTRY INSTRUCTIONS

- 4.1 All entries must be SUBMITTED ONLINE for the Competition via the website <https://www.sovereignartfoundation.com/sp-gibraltar/>
- 4.2 The entry period is from 8 September 2025 – 30 January 2026. No entries will be accepted after the 30 January deadline.
- 4.3 All online entries will be scored by a judging panel. The entrants with top scoring works will be selected as finalists and their artworks will be included in the finalists exhibition(s).
- 4.4 Entrants who experience difficulties submitting online or have questions about the prize can contact pkelly@sovereigngroup.com

5 FINALIST INSTRUCTIONS

- 5.1 The entrants selected as finalists by the judging panel will be officially notified by email or telephone.

Unsuccessful entrants will also be notified.

5.2 SAF is a charitable organisation which exists to help disadvantaged children. In support of that aim, all finalists are asked to make their selected work available for sale according to the terms and conditions in paragraph 7 below. If a finalist needs to retain their work to complete their course or their exams, a sale can be arranged subject to later delivery to the buyer.

5.2.1 The winning works of the Alwani Foundation Award, Ministry of Culture Award and AquaGib Second Prize will be retained by Culture Gi, for their collection, and will be removed from the auction.

5.3 All finalists' artworks must be available for the finalists exhibition and need to be delivered to the exhibition location at a time advised by SAF. The packaged artwork must be marked clearly on the reverse with the title of the piece, the finalist's name, the name of their school (if applicable) and suitable contact details.

5.4 Each artwork should be authenticated by the finalist by being signed and dated either on the work or on an accompanying certificate. If the entry is a photograph, digital work or print, the edition number must be clearly declared.

5.5 Each artwork should be framed in order to protect and present the work. If the finalist does not intend to exhibit the artwork framed, then adequate protection must be provided for its storage and transportation.

5.6 SAF will be responsible for installing the artworks in the finalists exhibition(s). Works should be delivered to SAF with appropriate fittings already in place for mounting/hanging.

6 FINALISTS EXHIBITION(S) AND AWARDS EVENT

6.1 The finalists' works will be displayed at a venue (or multiple venues) and on dates to be confirmed by SAF.

6.2 All works selected for the finalists exhibition must be available until the end of the exhibition period, as advised by SAF.

6.3 There will be an awards presentation at a venue and date to be confirmed by SAF where the winner of the Prizes will be announced – invitation only.

7 SALE OF WORK

7.1 As the purpose of the prize is not only to give artists a platform but also to raise money for charitable purposes through the sale of works, all finalists' artworks must be available for sale. If the artwork is required for end of term or year, it will be fine to stipulate delivery can only take place after that date (typically June/July).

7.2 Finalists must set an artwork price that is in line with normal values. For students we would advise the reserve not be over £800.

7.3 SAF will agree on an acceptable and reasonable sales price with each finalist.

7.4 If a finalist's artwork is sold, the finalist will be entitled to receive 50% of the sale proceeds, with the other 50% being retained to further the aims of SAF.

7.5 The winning works of the Alwani Foundation Award, Ministry of Culture Award and AquaGib Second Prize will be retained by Culture Gi, for their collection, and will be removed from the auction.

7.6 Any artwork not sold must be collected by the finalist or a representative on the finalist's behalf.

7.7 SAF will bear no responsibility for artworks that remain uncollected by the end of the collection period, as advised by SAF.

8 GENERAL CONDITIONS

Unless otherwise agreed with SAF in writing, the finalists agree and consent to the following:

- 8.1 Give SAF the right to reproduce their artwork images for any purposes relevant to this Competition.
- 8.2 Give The Sovereign Group of companies the right to reproduce their artwork images (with full credit to the finalists) for Sovereign marketing materials.
- 8.3 SAF may produce limited edition prints of finalists' artworks to further its charitable aims. The finalist agrees to assist SAF to achieve this purpose.
- 8.4 SAF to deal with the work and its reproductions in any manner as it deems fit.
- 8.5 SAF reserves the right to reproduce images, take photographs, videos, etc., of any artwork for any documentary, educational, publicity or other purpose.

9 DATA PROTECTION

- 9.1 SAF is responsible for collecting and using personal information when an entrant enters the Competition.
- 9.2 If an entrant chooses to withdraw from the Competition, they can ask for their personal information to be deleted.
- 9.3 SAF's Privacy Notice provides further information on how we treat personal information and how we protect privacy.
